

Granite Borders Landcare Committee invites you to

FERAL ANIMAL CONTROL FIELD DAY

Impacts on Industry and Biodiversity

Funded by AUSTRALIAN WOOL INNOVATION LIMITED

When: FRIDAY 10th February 2012 9.30-2.30 NSW time

Where: 'Yarramundi' New England Highway (Brian Lanz's wool shed).

RSVP: Wednesday 8th February Landcare Office 0267 363500

MORNING TEA AND LUNCH PROVIDED (please bring a chair)

9:30 Sign on & Granite Borders Landcare — Field Day Introduction

9:45 Greg Mifsud — National Wild Dog Facilitator: Impacts of wild dogs on biodiversity & strategic management of wild dogs on a national perspective.

10:45 Mark Lamb— Professional trapper Trapping demonstration (methods and signs)

Morning Tea

11.30 LHPA New England — Roles of landholders in the management of pest species under the current legislation & the correct use of chemicals.

12:00 Guy Bellard— Project Officer Wild Dog and Fox Management

Wild dogs and foxes: how they use the landscape.

12:30 LUNCH

1:00 Stuart Boyd Law—Pest Management Officer National Parks: Feral Pig Trapping

1:45 Phillip Gardner— Invasive Species Officer DPI: Planning process and the importance of fox control .

Granite Borders
Landcare

awi Australian Wool
Innovation Limited